

How our choices affect our lives and the lives of others ...

How truth and meaning may be a matter of perspective ...

How the right of conscience calls us to do what's right ...

How our faith can help us seek answers to our questions ...

Popcorn Theology

Exploring issues of theology and ethics through film with Unitarian Universalist youth

Written by Michelle Richards, co-author of Compass Points and author of Come In to the Circle: Worshiping with Children

The cost is $50 for one hard copy, $40 for additional copies, $70 for a burned CD, and $90 for both a CD and one hard copy.

Popcorn Theology is an 18 session curriculum built around popular movies on issues of theological and ethical relevance to Unitarian Universalist youth.

All movies are PG or PG-13 to accommodate middle school youth as well as high school youth.

Sessions can be done in a one-hour format using an excerpt of the video or as extended sessions showing the entire film for Movie Nights or Overnight programs.

Each session includes at least one activity designed to build upon the issues raised in the movie, with ideas for expanding the learning experience if used in a Movie Night or Overnight format.

Popcorn Theology Movies

Back to the Future (how our choices affect the future)

Star Trek Generations (finding inner peace)

Forrest Gump (cultivating an attitude of gratitude)

Saved! (the middle ground between right and wrong)

Little Buddha (concept of karma)

Star Trek V: The Final Frontier (how truth is determined by perspective)

Oh, God! (thinking about the big questions)

Bruce Almighty (things we have control over and those we do not)

Heaven Can Wait (concept of a soul)

Contact (the conflict between faith and science)

Bowling for Columbine (fear and violence in society)

Hotel Rwanda (how inaction leads to injustice)

Jurassic Park (ethics and scientific advancement)

Dances with Wolves (being open to "the other")

Willow (overcoming self doubt)

Lord of the Rings: Fellowship of the Ring
(overcoming temptation)

Hoosiers (offering forgiveness)

Field of Dreams (achieving our dreams)

Movies are not included with this curriculum, but must be obtained for use with Popcorn Theology.

All of these films are available on both VHS and DVD formats and many are available through local public libraries for free.

To request a sample session and table of contents,

Email the author at:

Richards.michelle@verizon.net

Popcorn Theology

Order Form

Name: _____

Congregation: _____

Address: (where curriculum should be sent)

Phone: _____

Email: _____

Number of hard copies: _____ Number of CDs: _____

(cost is $50 for one, $40 for additional copies, $70 for CD, $90 for both CD and one hard copy)

cost: _____

Shipping & Handling: (additional $5): _____

Total: _____

Make check payable to Michelle Richards and mail to:

Shancar Publications

1518 Greenbrier Drive

Elkhart, IN 46514

please allow 2 -3 weeks for delivery